COYNE PUBLIC RELATIONS NAMED INTERNSHIP EMPLOYER OF THE YEAR BY SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

Parsippany, N.J., April 5, 2010 – Coyne Public Relations CEO Tom Coyne today announced that the agency was named Internship Employer of the Year by Seton Hall University. Each year, the University’s Career Center, in collaboration with the academic colleges, recognizes one outstanding employer for providing its students with meaningful and often life changing internship experiences.

“We consider ourselves lucky to have established this great relationship with Seton Hall throughout the years,” said Tom Coyne. “We recognize all of the bright students Seton Hall has to offer and have been honored to work with so many young adults from the University.”

This honor recognizes Coyne PR’s dedication to mentoring and guiding students throughout their internship experiences, providing invaluable learning to many young adults. Throughout the past 15 years, Coyne PR’s commitment to experiential education has been demonstrated over and over by the numerous work experiences afforded to Seton Hall students. The agency will be honored at the “Experiential Education Awards Luncheon” at Seton Hall’s University Center on April 22.
